WEDNESDAY, MAY 2.

W. S. Taylor has returned to Frankfort.

Secretary Ross says there will never come a time when the American people will permit the Monroe doctrine to be disregarded.

The argument in the Kentucky gubernatorial contest was closed before the Supreme Court yesterday. An overruling decision is expected in the next few days.

Kentucky Populists met in Louisville last week, adopted a platform, appointed delegates to their national convention, and instructed them to vote for W. J. Bryan.

Mr. Taylor, of Butler county, has been in Washington struggling for Federal aid. State senators and artists regard him as too diminutive for anything but a very small part.

The Republican State Convention of Indiana and Ohio was silent on the Porto Rican tariff issue. The people will be heard again this gigantic robbery in November.

Matthew S. Quay will lead the Pennsylvania delegation at the Republican National Convention. What he will do for McKinley from now until November will be a sufficient.

A Democratic Congressional Convention for the Fourth District will be held at Bardonia, May 24th. John Dave Smith will be the only candidate before it. He will be nominated and elected.

Senator Mason has introduced a joint resolution in the Senate requesting Mr. McKinley to withdraw the forces of the United States from Cuba so as to turn the government of that island over to the Cubans by the 14th of July next.

Powers, Youtsey, Culton and other conspirators have asked for a change of venue, claiming that they can not get a fair trial in Franklin county. They would certainly be treated as fairly as was Mr. Goebel. The question of a change will be decided this week.

Last week the Republicans of Indiana nominated Col. W. D. Durbin for Governor on the seventh ballot. The Republicans of Indiana are torn to pieces on account of McKinley's Porto Rican policy, hence Col. Durbin is not a sure winner. In fact the Democrats think that he will lose.

Ex-representative Lewis, of the State of Washington sizes up the political situation as follows: "Col. Bryan will receive the unanimous vote of the delegation for the State of Washington at Kansas City, and I am confident he will get the electoral vote of the State. My belief that he will carry the State, in spite of the existing strong sentiment for expansion, is based on the stronger sentiment in opposition to trusts and the faith the people have in bimetalism. I believe the same thing will apply to all the Pacific slope States, except Oregon."

Mr. McKinley is no doubt the man who engineered the plans which resulted in the refusal of the Senate by a vote of 55 to 32 to test Quay. McKinley has had it in for Quay for just about four years and has been patiently awaiting a chance to get even. In order to throw Quay and his friends off the scent, Boss Hanna allowed himself to be counted as a Quay man until the day of the vote, when it was announced that he was paired against Quay. It would be interesting to know how Mr. McKinley induced Senators Aldrich and Beveridge, both Quay men, to absent themselves without pairs. Their votes would have sealed Quay. The President may, however, find his triumph a dearly bought one, as Mr. Quay is about as relentless an enemy as any politician could possibly have following his trail, awaiting an opportunity to strike.

A Republican primary election will be held in all the counties comprising the Eleventh Congressional district Monday, August 6, to nominate a candidate for Congress. The present incumbent, Hon. Vincent Boring, is the only anonymous candidate, but Hon. John D. White will either run or furnish a man. He was in Louisville last week, and from his movements observers concluded that he was a real contender with a very important matter. Mr. White is out with the organization of his party, but should he become a candidate he will have a strong following among the rank and file.

Fifteen to twenty millions of dollars in property was destroyed and 12,000 to 15,000 people were made homeless by a fire which started in Hall, Ont., last Thursday. The town was wiped out and the fire crossed the Ottawa river, into Ontario, destroying part of Ottawa and the towns of Rochester, Huntington and Methuenville.

Robert Walker is in Cumberland county this week. H. A. Walker and Dick Tandy started for Monroe county to day looking after sheep. Mrs. J. D. Walker is by the bedside of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Roy Walker, who is dangerously sick at Nell. Sam Sherrill, of Columbia, was in our town last Saturday. Mr. J. D. Walker is receiving a nice lot of tobacco this week. Mrs. C. C. Yates is in a very critical condition at this writing. Mrs. J. J. Hunter entertained quite a number of our young ladies even in our town last Saturday. There has been an epidemic in nearly every family in this community, of something like laryngitis. One of our merchants informed us that he sold more calico one evening last week to one customer than he ever did with 20 years experience in business. The amount was 230 yards. Any one wanting to buy a comfortable home in a good community, would do well to call on Mrs. Stephen Asper, near this place. Mr. D. J. Schoelling, who has been working in this county for several months, informed us that he had insured $40,000 worth of property in this county. Dick Tandy bought last week, of Sam Myers, of Sparksville, two male colts and one male for $150. Mr. Hattie Nell has received his commission as constable for this and Breckinridge precincts. Also L. C. Hildman for Milltown and Keltner precincts. Mrs. Jas. Dubony and daughter, of Cave Valley, were by the bedside of Mrs. C. C. Yates a few days last week. News Hulse and Dillon; Miss Sallie Deeds and Mr. C. O. Moss and wife attended the missionary institute at Glen's Fork last Saturday and Sunday. Louis Tandy bought in Metcalf county, 10 head of hogs ready for the market at 30c per pound. Smith & Nell sold Hun & Coffey last week, 35 head of sheep for $125.00; to Bridgewater & Hardesty, of Lebanon, 65 head of sheep and two head of cattle for $100, and the same parties has for sale 10 milch cows and calves that they will sell reasonable. J. A. Diddle sold Bridgewater & Hardesty, of Lebanon 35 head of sheep at about $4.00 per head. We understand the free schools in this section of the country have their teachers all slated. Prof. Frances will teach here; J. H. Nell at the Yates district; W. H. McCaffree at Highgate district; Mr. W. M. Moss at Cool Spring district; Rev. Thad Salmon in the Keltner district; and Miss Annie Bradshaw in the Wilmore district.
